

9TH ANNUAL HUMAN RIGHTS WALK AND FESTIVAL CORPORATE UNDERWRITING REQUEST FOR HUMAN RIGHTS DAY CELEBRATION

Local John Cooper School 12th grade student, Pablo Flower along with Cooper graduate, Demme Durrett, will be putting on the 9th Annual Human Rights Walk and Festival in The Woodlands at Town Green Park on Saturday, December 7, 2019, from 10:30 am-1:00 pm.

The event will raise awareness about Human Rights Education in our community and help celebrate International Human Rights Day in an effort to create more peace and tolerance in the world. There will be a walk, live entertainment, activities, fair-trade shopping, music, a raffle, vendors, a Pet Walk, gourmet food trucks, local news crews, and MUCH more. Estimated attendance for 2019 will be around 2000-4000 people. This has been the largest Human Rights Day event in the US for the past several years.

You can assist in the city-wide success of this event by becoming one of the Corporate Underwriters for this event. As a Corporate Underwriter, your company will get:

- Free promotion for your business throughout the community on promotional materials and the website for the event.
- You will also be given acknowledgement in Television and Radio interviews that will be broadcast in the greater Houston area and if you prefer, could join in on the interviews.
- You will have the opportunity to speak briefly at the event on any aspect of Human Rights that is meaningful to you, or why you or your company wishes to sponsor an event such as this.
- You have a HUGE opportunity for unlimited branding at the Event. The venue is very large and the more visual branding the better. Visual branding with large signs and banners are VERY welcome. Also, product displays of any size or quantity are possible and would be welcomed.
